📅 September 15, 2024

To celebrate International Democracy Day on September 15, Accountability Lab Nepal is hosting a friendraiser event that highlights the vital role of young people in advancing democracy and their crucial role in decision-making. This year's theme #EmpoweringNextGen, too, resonates and emphasizes the role of young people in democracy. We would like to highlight the vibrancy and innovation that youth bring to democratic processes. We believe that art is a powerful medium to capture this spirit, and we're seeking your support.

We invite you to share your creative expressions—whether paintings, art pieces, models, cartoons, satires, poems, short films, or any other form of art that resonates with the themes of democracy, human rights, climate justice, inclusion, and the challenges and practices that come with them.

Please submit your work by September 10, 2024, and be part of this meaningful celebration. The artist will be respectfully credited for their work and appropriately incentivized.

We would love to feature your art on this special day!
