

Call for Expression of Interest (EOI)

Capacity Building for Local CSOs in Karnali, Sudurpaschim, and Madhesh Provinces

Accountability Lab Nepal (ALN) and Nepal Disabled Women Association (NDWA) invite Expressions of Interest (EOI) from eligible local Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) to participate in a capacity-building program. This program aims to support CSOs in designing and implementing quality education initiatives in their respective areas, contributing to the implementation of the School Education Sector Plan (SESP).

This call is part of the EU-funded project, ACCESS – Accelerating Civil Society’s Role in Securing Education for All in Madhesh, Karnali, and Sudurpaschim Provinces, that seeks to strengthen the role of civil society in promoting inclusive and equitable education. The ACCESS project is implemented by a consortium of People in Need (PIN), Accountability Lab Nepal (ALN), Nepal Disabled Women Association (NDWA), and the National Campaign for Education Nepal (NCE Nepal).

Purpose of the Call

To strengthen the organizational and technical capacities of local CSOs to design and implement education initiatives that support the effective implementation of SESP, with a focus on equity, inclusion, and community engagement.
